

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Help Us Tell Our Story by Sharing Yours

As we celebrate the International Literacy Association's 70th anniversary, we invite members of our global community to share photos and written reflections that capture what the organization has meant to you and the role it has played in your work as a literacy professional.

How to Participate

Follow the links below to share your photos and stories.

1 Share Your Photos

We're looking for images that capture your connection to ILA—conference moments, professional milestones, and meaningful snapshots from years past. Please share JPG or PNG files (up to 5 MB each) and include the names of those pictured, along with where and when each photo was taken.

2 Share Your Words

What has ILA meant to you as a literacy professional? How has ILA supported or influenced your personal journey? Tell us about the moments you want to remember (or the ones you can never forget!) in written reflections of 500 words or less.

Contributions will be reviewed on a rolling basis throughout the year and may be selected to appear in Literacy Today magazine, on ILA's website, in anniversary materials, or across ILA's social media channels.

It is only through your voices and experiences that we can truly tell the story of ILA.
