Exploring an Interdisciplinary Literacy Approach to LGBTQQ Young Adult Literature

This was on Monday, 9:00 AM, Room 108A and has now been changed to Saturday, 1:00 PM, Room W106.

Speakers: Judith Dunkerly-Bean, Tom Bean, Char Moffit, and Julia Morris

Updated Title & Description

1:30 PM–2:30 PM

Location: Exhibit Hall, Learning Lab 1

Corrected Title: Engage Struggling Readers With Purposeful Intervention

Corrected Description: Today's standards continue to raise the rigor in literacy instruction, which means it's more important than ever to help all students achieve reading success. In this session, participants will learn flexible, easy-to-implement interventions that can be done right in the classroom to meet the needs of all students. Participants will receive handouts and resources that can be used in their classrooms tomorrow.

Presenter(s): Laura Robb and Kim Carlton

New Session

Location: Exhibit Hall, Learning Lab 1

Creating a Culture of Elementary Reading–Istation #1

Note: This session is being run three times; check the app for more info.

Developing reading skills as early as possible is vitally important because of its strong correlation to overall academic achievement, but engaging elementary students can be a challenge. Get an inside look at technology and tools that will help differentiate instruction, from intervention to enrichment. This session with Istation will show how to develop a culture of reading and see how emphasizing a growth mind-set and using a blended learning approach can make a powerful impact.
