D. Newsletter

Create a newsletter or similar communication piece containing information about chapter activities, highlighting professional resources, and promoting membership.

E. Supporting Future/New Educators

Document chapter support for the professional growth of future/new educators

Examples include: college scholarships, conference registration, complimentary/discounted memberships, providing teacher resources/instructional materials, offering meetings, workshops, webinars, institutes, etc. designed to serve future/new teachers.

F. Professional Development for Chapter Members

Document support for the professional development of chapter members. Examples include: college scholarships, conference registration, offering meetings, workshops, webinars, institutes, etc. based on the current needs of chapter members.

PART II: SERVICE TO LOCAL COMMUNITY

Optional Criteria (CHOOSE 3)

A. Celebrate Literacy

Recognize an organization, institution, or individual that has made significant literacy contributions at the local, state, or provincial level with a Celebrate Literacy Award. Information regarding this award can be found on the ILA website. Accomplishments may include 1) direct teaching at any level, 2) organizing local literacy programs, 3) promoting public support relative to enhancing literacy, 4) producing teaching materials or special media for literacy programs, 5) conducting research in literacy, 6) conducting special surveys for literacy planning, 7) providing young people with opportunities to help with literacy activities, and 8) conducting informal educational activities of a social, cultural, economic, or political nature in which literacy activities are included. Each chapter should develop specific selection guidelines for the award. Recognition certificates may be requested from ILA.

B. Community Literacy Project

Organize and implement a community literacy project. Examples include: International Literacy Day, Read Across America events, reading at the mall, summer reading incentive programs, read-a-thons, etc.

C. Advocacy

Participate in advocating for significant literacy issues. In the US, chapter members may be active in educating legislators or provincial officials about literacy issues pertinent to local chapter members.

D. Early Childhood/Family Literacy

Conduct a program or project that focuses on the important role families play in children's literacy development.

E. Young Authors

Sponsor or cosponsor an activity that encourages, supports, and recognizes student writers in the chapter's geographic area. Examples include: young authors' contests, writing workshops, authors' tea, writing celebrations, etc.

F. Community Service

Perform a service project that brings literacy benefits to community members. Examples include: virtual readings, collecting magazines/books for community programs, assisting with adult literacy programs, etc.

G. Media Outlets in Education (MOIE)

Promote the use of print media for instructional purposes in the classroom and at home. Examples include: inviting MOIE to a chapter meeting to share instructional strategies, including MOIE activities in newsletters or on the chapter's website, providing MOIE resources to schools, etc.

PART III: PARTNERSHIP WITH STATE/PROVINCIAL CHAPTER AND ILA

Required Criteria (ALL, A–D)

A. Chapter Members

Have ten ILA members in the chapter.

B. State/Provincial Recommendation

The state/provincial board of directors provides a letter of recommendation that the chapter is in good standing with the state.

C. Support State/Provincial Goals

Summarize how the chapter supports programs and projects that reflect the strategic plan of the state/provincial chapter.

D. Support ILA's Mission

Describe how the chapter supports ILA's mission. ILA's strategic statements are located on the ILA website.

PART IV: SERVICE TO INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY

Optional Criteria (CHOOSE 2, A–E)

A. International Literacy Day

Participate in an International Literacy Day celebration.

B. Help Support the Global Fund

As a member of the ILA global network, your chapter has the opportunity to support educators in developing countries. ILA's global fund helps to promote literacy activities around the world. Your contribution of $100 or more can help to support future projects such as establishing libraries in Tanzania, after-school young writers clubs in Sierra Leone, reading contests in rural Bangladesh, and reading kits in Bolivia.

*If choosing this option, please make your check payable to ILA and indicate "Honor – Part IV B" in the memo section.

C. Worldwide Literacy

Contribute to worldwide literacy effort by providing materials, funds to purchase school supplies, or assisting with costs related to the professional growth of teachers. Form 4C can be found below.

D. International Literacy

Conduct a project that will promote literacy in another country. This project may involve a partnership with other agencies, such as Peace Corps, Red Cross, Rotary, etc.

E. ILA International Partnership

Establish a partnership with an international affiliate. Examples include: sharing professional information, providing teaching resources, communicating virtually, etc.
