

This award is presented to a researcher or practitioner who has contributed significantly to advancing the knowledge base and instructional efficacy of educators in the focus area of struggling readers.

Sponsored by Achieve3000

SUBMISSION TIMELINE

- Opens September 15 each year
- Closes March 15 each year (Note: All submissions received after this date will be held for consideration for the following award year)
- Applicants are notified of the results via email by mid- to late-June

CRITERIA

Candidate Qualifications

- Must be an ILA member
- A leader of research and practice in the field of struggling reading—one who serves the profession and assumes leadership positions in several important capacities in struggling reading education (e.g., researcher, teacher, scholar, supervisor, author, lecturer, administrator, or counselor)
- A distinguished, innovative, and long-standing contributor to the field through methods and/or media; design and implementation of effectual reading courses; or outstanding lectures for professionals specializing in struggling readers
- A role model/mentor—one who instructs students/teachers to their full potential and supports their ability to effectively guide struggling readers and who inspires students, teachers, colleagues, through research, lectures, writings, instruction
- A disseminator—one who researches, publishes, and promotes beyond his/her own campus effective practices for teaching struggling readers
- Instrumental in the initiation and development of original ideas that have increased knowledge and understanding of the reading process and/or improved practices in struggling reading instruction and development
- Influential in the production of definitive material or important restructuring of existing material with exhaustive coverage in the field of struggling readers.

To become an ILA member or renew your membership please contact ILA Customer Service at 800.336.7323 or 302.731.1600 or customerservice@reading.org). To join or renew online, please visit <https://literacyworldwide.org/membership>.

HOW TO APPLY

Complete your submission online using ScholarOne (a web-based grant management system; previously Manuscript Central) at https://mc04.manuscriptcentral.com/ILA_awards-grants.

CREATING A PROFILE

All nominees and nominators must create a profile by providing the following information in the ScholarOne system (if you are nominating another person for the award, see instructions under Step 4 for creating an account for a nominee/coapplicant). If you are a returning user, please view or edit your profile to make sure it is current.

- User name and password
- First and last name
- Mailing address
- Phone number and email address
- Institutional affiliation and position/title

APPLICATION PREPARATION

STEP 1: TYPE, TITLE, AND ABSTRACT

- Select Manuscript Type (screen will refresh once selected)
- Title section: Enter Nominee's name in the title section
- Abstract: Not applicable
- Application Type: (Individual)

STEP 2: UPLOAD

The following materials should be uploaded as individual documents (Important note: Failure to upload all items below will result in your application being unsubmitted.*):

- Rationale for Recommendation: Include a description of candidate's lifelong contributions to research and/or instruction in the capacity of teacher educator in the field of struggling reading, course implementation, publications, and service to the profession
- Curriculum Vitae: Candidate's professional vita (maximum of three [3] pages).
- Letters of Recommendation: Minimum of two (2) letters of support citing candidate's outstanding and long-term impact on research and/or practice in the field of struggling reading instruction and development

STEP 3: ATTRIBUTES

Level of Learners: Select the level of learners the work has been geared toward.

STEP 4: APPLICANTS, NOMINATORS, & INSTITUTIONS

Nominee (self-nominating) Information: Applicant information will be automatically populated from the nominee's profile information. Applicant must add any coapplicants using the same steps as the Nominator information below.

Nominator Information: The Nominee must be added as a coapplicant. To add the nominee, search the nominee's email address: If the nominee has a profile in the ScholarOne system, select the coapplicant from the pop-up box and select "Add coapplicant". The information will then be added to the application. If the nominee's email is not found in the system, the following message will appear at the top of the page:

No co-author found. Please search again using another email address or create a new co-author.

Click on the "create a new co-author" link in the message. You will then be prompted to add a new author using the nominee's name and email address. The nominee will then be notified with a request to complete his/her profile.

Nominee/Nominator: Indicate whether you are the Nominee or Nominator.

Membership Information

Enter the nominee membership information.

STEP 5: DETAILS & COMMENTS

Cover Letter (optional)

Applicant may enter cover letter text (not viewable by reviewers) or upload a cover letter (as a Supplementary File NOT for Review).

Select how you heard about the award.

STEP 6: REVIEW & SUBMIT

Review your submission carefully before you submit. You will not be able to update or edit your submission after you submit it. You will be informed if your application encountered any errors. After you submit, you will receive an email confirmation of your submission for this award.

REVIEW PROCEDURES AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

Applications will be reviewed by members of the ILA Leaders Inspiring Readers Award Committee.

- Decisions will be based on the quality of the application, relevance to the award's intent, and the quality of supporting materials

- The award will be made only in those years when the committee concludes there is an application of high quality
- Recipient is encouraged to submit a session proposal for presentation at the annual ILA Conference.

Please direct any questions about submitting your application to Wendy Logan at ILAAwards@reading.org.