

Julia Reynolds

Board Member
2017–2020

Julia Reynolds, PhD, is Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction for Allendale Public Schools in Allendale, Michigan.

Julia previously served as the English Language Arts program manager for Savannah-Chatham County Public School System in Georgia. Before that, she was director of Curriculum and School Improvement for Northview Public Schools in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and an associate professor of Education (Literacy Studies) at Aquinas College. She has experience as a classroom teacher in Wyoming Public Schools and Forest Hills Public Schools, in curriculum development in Grand Rapids Public Schools, and as an adjunct instructor at Aquinas College (before becoming a faculty member), Grand Valley State University, Grand Rapids Community College, Calvin College, and San Diego State University.

Julia has served as president for both the Michigan Council of Teachers of English and the Michigan Reading Association. In addition, she has authored and coauthored articles and book chapters on best practices in literacy instruction and performed extensive literacy consulting throughout Michigan.

Julia has a BA in Criminology and Law Studies from Marquette University, a BA in English and Reading and an MAT from Aquinas College, and an EdS in Educational Administration and a PhD in Teacher Education and Literacy from Michigan State University.

Julia resides in Michigan and loves reading (professional, personal, young adult, and children's books) and writing.