How to Access Your ILA Journals Online From Your Desktop

There are two ways to access your ILA journals online, and we’ve outlined both of them below. Each path will lead you to your content, but for a more personalized approach, follow the steps of Option 1.

Option 1:

Go to literacyworldwide.org and sign in at the top of the page with your ILA username and password:

Once you’re logged in, click My ILA Resources at the top left of the page, which will take you to your personalized account page:

Scroll down to view your subscriptions under My Journals. Click the journal you’d like to view, which will redirect you to the digital version of your journal on the Wiley Hub, hosted by Wiley Online Library:
From here, you'll be able to access your journal content immediately. You can view recently published, most cited, and most accessed content, or view the entire current issue by clicking on the current issue cover or volume and issue number on the right side of the page. (Please note: You don't need to log in again on the Wiley Online Library site!)

Please note: After 30 minutes of inactivity on the Wiley Hub, you will automatically be logged out and will have to log back in. The best way to do this is to go back to your My Account page on literacyworldwide.org.

Option 2:

Go to literacyworldwide.org and sign in at the top of the page with your ILA username and password:

Click Get Resources and then Journals from the drop-down menu:
Look for the title(s) to which you subscribe on the Journals page. (If you are not signed in, there will be a message asking you to sign in, which you can do at the top of the page.) Click Read My Journal.

The Reading Teacher

The most popular journal for educators of literacy learners up to age 12, offering high-quality, evidence-based teaching tips and ideas plus the teacher perspective.
